Dear Mr. Rogge:

I greatly appreciate your kindness in putting me on the mailing list to receive the Air Edition of "The Times", the first copy of which arrived shortly after your letter of October 28th. I very much enjoyed reading "The Times" and shall look forward to receiving it. In reply to your inquiry, I would suggest that it be sent to me at the address shown above.

Again with many thanks for your kindness and with best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

We have pleasure in informing you that your name has been placed on our mailing list to receive with the compliments of "THE TIMES" copies of its Air Edition. The Air Edition of "THE TIMES", printed and published in London, is an exact replica of the regular edition, except that it is printed on India paper. Copies are transported daily from London to New York by air express and are then forwarded to readers here by the quickest possible route.

Service will commence with the issue of October 27, 1947, due from London today. If you wish the paper sent to any other address than the one indicated below, will you be good enough to let us know.

In these days of crisis we trust that you will find the authoritative news and views of "THE TIMES" of London of interest and value.

Yours faithfully,

THE TIMES, London, Inc.
